
KEMS (KING EDWARD MUSICAL SOCIETY OF MACCLESFIELD) SAFEGUARDING POLICY – REVISED APRIL 2024

Safeguarding Policy Statement

KEMS (King Edward Musical Society of Macclesfield) is committed to ensuring that all members and others directing, playing or singing with KEMS are safeguarded while taking part in its activities.

Scope of the Policy

The aim of this policy is to:

- Ensure the safety of children and vulnerable adults involved in KEMS
- Ensure that all KEMS members and others directing, playing or singing with KEMS are clear about their safeguarding responsibilities
- It will provide guidance:
 - to ensure that the risks of harm to children and vulnerable adults are minimised
 - on procedures to follow in the event that any adult suspects a child or vulnerable adult may be experiencing, or be at risk of experiencing harm
 - for responding to a child or vulnerable adult making an allegation of abuse

Definitions

A child is defined as a person under the age of 18. Exceptions to this are: children who are placed in local authority care are usually classed as children until aged 21, and those with special needs are regarded as children while aged under 25.

For the purpose of this Policy, young people who are still at school in Year 13 are included in the definition of children, regardless of their age.

A vulnerable adult is a person aged 18 or over:

‘who is or may be in need of community care services by reason of mental or other disability, age or illness; and who is or may be unable to take care of him or herself against significant harm or exploitation.’

- Appoint a named Safeguarding Lead(s) for the society who understands their responsibility to refer any safeguarding concerns to the appropriate statutory agency (i.e. Police, Social Services. Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO)). This person(s) will also act as a Verifier for DBS checks within the society.

Children:

- Physical Abuse
- Sexual Abuse
- Psychological / Emotional Abuse
- Neglect

Vulnerable Adults:

Although the forms of abuse are the same for vulnerable adults the definitions may alter slightly, with additional forms of abuse which may be relevant to vulnerable adults.

- Physical Abuse
- Sexual Abuse
- Psychological / Emotional Abuse
- Financial or Material Abuse
- Neglect or Acts of Omission
- Discriminatory Abuse
- Institutional Abuse

What to do if you are concerned

If you have concerns about a child or vulnerable adult don't keep the information to yourself.

Report any concerns to the Safeguarding Volunteers in your section, or the Safeguarding Lead for KEMS using the email addresses below:

What happens if someone discloses something or makes an allegation

- Remain calm; don't show any strong reactions such as shock and disgust.
- Reassure the person that they are doing the right thing by telling you, and it is not their fault.
- Take the allegation seriously. Do not promise confidentiality, explain that you will have to share this information, but only to people who need to know such as the Safeguarding Lead.
- Accept what is said without comment or judgement.
- Take time to listen carefully to what is being said. Do not ask leading questions – use words such as what, why, who, when and how. This will allow them to share their story freely.
- Do not ask too many questions or press for more details. Do not interrupt them – allow them to share whatever is important to them.
- It is crucial that you record what was said / what you saw, where it was said / where you saw it and who was there, including their relationship to you.
- Record any questions you have asked and their views and wishes. In the case of a vulnerable adult also record what they want to be done. Do this as soon as you can so that none of the detail is lost – make sure you use the individual's own words as much as possible – do not add any interpretations, reactions, evaluations or conclusions.
- This information should be kept confidential and passed onto the Safeguarding Lead as soon as possible. Do not keep a copy for yourself.

Further guidance for society members and audiences:

- Should any child or vulnerable adult wish to join KEMS, they must have the consent of their parent or carer. This needs to be received and discussed with the Section Chair and Musical Director (MD) before the first rehearsal.
- Rehearsals: KEMS members are to ensure that they are never alone with a young person or vulnerable adult. Pay particular attention to backstage areas, or collecting equipment etc.
- Performances with schools / young people: KEMS will need to make arrangements to ensure that school children will always be in the care of their teachers, helpers or parents.
- Audiences: KEMS is aware that children and vulnerable adults may attend their events as members of the audience.

- If a child or vulnerable adult is not picked up at the end of a rehearsal or concert, then two people should remain with that person.
- When a child/vulnerable adult attends a rehearsal, it is assumed that the parents/carers have given their consent for this and, if there is no contact with the parents/carers, this should be regarded as a Safeguarding concern and reported to the Safeguarding Lead in accordance with our Policy.
